

English Project Competition

Dear students!

Do you love creating projects as an individual or as a group? Then enter the competition to design the best project and you could win a fantastic prize! Don't be afraid and take part in this school project☺

Theme for the Project: STOP Drugs!

Aim of the Project: The main aim of this project is to present your ideas in English in an intelligent, entertaining, inclusive and interactive way. Our hope is that a greater understanding and enjoyment of English can enrich you and enable you to develop your English skills, while using your creativity and having fun

Who can participate: EVERYONE WHO SPEAKS ENGLISH!

What to Do: Make a poster depicting your attitude towards drugs and prepare a brief presentation of your project, you can include-

- what is the danger of drug abuse
- what do drugs cause
- suggest a solution how to stop drugs
- why do people abuse drugs
- ..... etc.

Terms and Conditions: All of the projects may be completed individually or in pairs. The main condition of creating posters is to use your creativity and whatever materials you want (scissors, glue, coloured pens, crayons...). The second part of the projects is its presentation. The oral presentation should last at least 5 minutes (or 7 minutes if the project is created by pairs and both members of the pair must take part). Each project must be labeled with the student's or group name and class. The deadline for the project is March 25, 2011. The date of oral part will yet be ascertained.

Judging and The Prize:

A panel of English teachers will judge each project according to the specified criteria. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will receive certificates and also a small interesting motivating attractive prize☺. Additionally, winning projects will be put on display.
